VOL. 10 NO. 25 WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 13, 1969 15¢ per copy

Lou Martineau, left, and Claude Valliere, right, pose with the newest member of the St. Albert parks department, Puff Ball. Puff may not seem too happy, but that may be because Lou hurt his feelings. He thought he was a rock. Puff sprouted at the town nurseries less than two weeks ago and in that time grew to 15 pounds with a girth of 38 1/2 inches. Lou and Claude wouldn't say what they had planned for the giant puffball but if you ever hear someone holler "bombs away" . . . duck fast.

Nurses express alarm over government bill

Concern that a proposed council on nursing will take control of the profession's education and discipline through the provincial government's Bill 119 has been expressed by the St. Albert Chapter of the Alberta Association of Registered Nurses.

An emergency meeting has been called for Aug. 26 by the St. Albert Chapter to study the proposed bill.

"We are terribly concerned that they will take over this control and possibly weaken our association and profession," Mrs. Rachel Paton, president of the St. Albert Chapter, said Monday.

Under Bill 119, the provincial government intends to incorporate the Alberta Council on Nursing which "will have extensive regulatory powers in relation to the educational requirements, licensing and disciplining of the major categories of nursing personnel, namely registered nurses, psychiatrist nurses, mental deficiency nurses, nursing aids and nursing orderlies."

Mrs. Paton said the nurses do not want to stop the bill, they just want to ensure that some of its proposals will not be harmful to the individual nurse or the association.

Mrs. Paton said that the bill has many advantages, one being that for the first time in Alberta there would be a regulatory body over nursing generally. "This has never been done before," she said. "They have something in Ontario, but nothing as sweeping as this."

The association wants all nurses in the province to examine the bill so that any complaints can be taken to the provincial government before the bill is presented to the next session of the legislature.

In Northcentral Alberta, they will be able to express their views at the meeting on Aug. 26 at 8 p.m. in the St. Albert Community Hall. Mrs. Helen Sabin, executive secretary of the association, will address that meeting.

A rally will be held on Sept. 8 at 8 p.m. in the auditorium of the Royal Alexandra Hospital.

Council briefs

The town staff has finally convinced council that an air conditioning and cooling system is a necessity not a luxury.

Council gave third reading to a bylaw authorizing installation of the system.

The matter has come up just about every year for the past several years. It got just a little bit more serious each time.

R. H. Brunell was named by council to fill the vacancy on the Industrial Commercial Committee. There were four applicants for the position, which offers no pay.

So who needs a swimming pool. St. Albert almost became one Sunday afternoon when hail and rain hammered the town for more than half an hour. Water on many streets was a foot deep and on some, where it had no easy escape route, was as deep as four feet. On the bottom of Gladstone Cres., it reached the windows of a car and poured in, filling it. The basement of Jim Byrne's Clothing Store got hit by the storm in another way. The sewer backed up. The youngsters pictured above may have enjoyed the aftermath, but many residents who found their gardens badly beaten certainly didn't. The town nurseries escaped without a pain of glass broken.

Town's resolutions fail to get results

The Town of St. Albert didn't have too much success with two resolutions it had adopted by the 52nd Annual Convention of the Alberta Urban Municipalities Association in Lethbridge last fall.

One resolution has been rejected by the provincial government and the other deferred for consideration by a special legislative committee studying real property assessment and taxation.

The resolution deferred asked that the government institute a selective sales tax and/or a surcharge on the Federal Income Tax in such amounts as may be necessary to remove the entire cost of education from the municipal tax levy.

The government, in its reply to the AUMA, said the special legislative committee "will no doubt study the recommendations that the resolution suggests. Consideration . . . will await the report of the committee."

The resolution had said that the cost of education "is accelerating annually at a rate greatly in excess of the growth of municipal assessments and is apparently uncontrollable, to the extent that property tax levies cannot be maintained in proportion with the provincial or national economy."

"And as a result of drastic education cost increases, the property tax is regressive."

It also claimed education is the prime responsibility of the provincial government.

St. Albert had requested that Section 102 of the Municipal Taxation Act be amended to allow separate tax notices for municipal and school purposes with respect to each parcel of land.

In rejecting the resolution, the government informed the AUMA that "much confusion would result if a taxpayer were to receive two tax notices during the same year." It said that amendments were made to the School Act at the last session of the Legislature which should result in earlier receipt by municipalities of requisitions, thereby enabling tax notices to be mailed in reasonable time.

The St. Albert resolution suggested that municipalities can strike the municipal portion of the mill rate considerably earlier than the approval of the department of education estimates.

It said the delay caused in waiting for the department of education's requirements has an adverse effect on the interest earnings of the municipality.

Mayor unhappy with response

Mayor Ray Gibbon is unhappy with the treatment the provincial government accorded the two resolutions the town successfully presented to the Alberta Urban Municipalities Association last fall.

The mayor, speaking on the resolution deferred that called for a sales tax so that education costs could be removed from the municipal tax levy, said:

"When a resolution such as this one passes at the AUMA with the obvious support it had, the government shouldn't be waiting for committee reports. It should be looking into instituting the actual resolution."

"I am not happy with the answer. It is one that leaves everything unanswered. We are quite aware that the committee is sitting, but I'm sure its terms of reference will not cover this."

The mayor said he was disturbed that the government has already put a five per cent surcharge on income tax, yet there is no relief in sight from supplementary requisitions.

"They raised $20,000,000 and put a corresponding amount into the Foundation Program," he said. "It wasn't enough."

The mayor suggested that with the five per cent surcharge not doing the job, the next step will be a sales tax. He said it would do the same thing—nothing.

Regarding the second resolution, which called for separate tax notices for municipal and school purposes with respect to each parcel of land, the mayor said council had an alternative it would probably present in resolution form to the AUMA this fall.

It would call for a change in the tax year, moving the town back more in line with the school boards.

"The government said amendments approved in the legislature this year would speed things up," he said. "It certainly didn't as far as we were concerned."

(St. Albert didn't get its tax notices until late June this year, a delay which for a time was estimated to be costing the town $208 a day in interest and lost revenue. The town was awaiting the two school board's supplementary requisitions, but the school boards couldn't make a move on their budgets until they knew the extent of grants under the Foundation Program.)

Town still talking with Calgary Power

The Town of St. Albert is still negotiating with Calgary Power for the purchase of its interests in St. Albert.

Mayor Gibbon said Monday the matter was still in committee and that he could only say "they were still talking."

St. Albert's contract with Calgary Power ran out in October, but the town is still purchasing power under the terms of the old agreement, which has been in effect for 10 years.

The town feels that if it can purchase Calgary Power's installations, it can purchase power wholesale and resell it to the consumer at retail prices, thus realizing a profit for the town.

Mayor Gibbon poses with the U.S. youngsters, who did not seem very tired even though they had been on the go steady for almost a week when they came to St. Albert.

Sturgeon 4-H hosts US guests

Forty boys and girls from Wisconsin visited St. Albert and 4-H families in the district during two days last week.

They arrived Wednesday, Aug. 6, and were welcomed in the Lions Park by Mayor Ray Gibbon, Mrs. Rene Laird of the recreation department, M.L.A. Keith Everitt, some 100 members from the local 4-H clubs and RCMP Const. K. F. Truesdell in parade dress.

The youngsters had expressed wishes, when the route was being made up during the past winter, that they would like to visit Canada and among many things get to see a Mountie dressed as they have seen them in so many adventure pictures. They saw him for real in St. Albert, and really made use of their cameras.

Starting by bus from Wisconsin on Aug. 1, it took them three days to get to Edmonton. They visited families in the county of Strathcona until Aug. 6, and as a group visited two dairy farms, the Alberta Game Farm and the Golden Horse Ranch.

The bus arrived in St. Albert late last Wednesday afternoon. Mr. Everitt gave some details about the town's area, industry and recreation, and handed out copies of the brochure "Alberta, A Land For Living."

Afterwards, the visitors, who were between 16 and 18 years old, and their hosts roasted winners and talked, and finished the day by visiting the museum and having a swim in the pool.

On Saturday morning the visitors left for two days in the Stony Plain area before they returned home.

"This is the first time we have been able to do a thing like this," says Mrs. Merri-Lyn Robertson, one of the 4-H leaders who organized the welcome program. "We hope very much to be able to make a similar trip to Wisconsin next summer and see these people again and learn how they are living."

Leaders for the U.S. youngsters were Mrs. Doris Brezina and Mr. Don Hannack, both from Menominee. Mrs. Brezina said the youngsters were from four counties - Dunn, Barron, Polk and Eau Claire - which together total more than 1,000 4-H members.

Money for the trip had been raised by hard teamwork over a long period. Members carried out different services during cattle auctions and other events.

"We hope that it will be possible for the members from this area to make a trip to Wisconsin next summer," Mrs. Brezina says. "We are already looking forward to it."

Const. K. F. Truesdell was the first Mountie 40 4-H members from Wisconsin, who visited the St. Albert area for two days last week, had ever seen. He and local 4-H members welcomed the visitors in the Lions Park. From the left Wisconsin visitors Nancy Bjork, Bill Schroeder and leader Mrs. Doris Brezina, Const. Truesdell, leader Mrs. L. Whitson, Alcomdale, Clifford Brenneis, Morinville, and Audrey Gibson, Nainao.

Toni Pasternack of Glen Dale Club was first low gross and placed 1st in the 18-19 age group with an even par 72. Howard shot a 74. Both boys were presented with trophies and voucher prizes worth $30 for Toni and $25 for Howard.

On Monday Mike Tomash pro at the Sturgeon Valley Club, and Howie have entered the Pro-Junior tournament at the Glendale. Howie has also played in the tournaments at Devon, the Mayfair (Northern Alberta) and the Derriek club this season.

This is his 3rd season working at the local course and in his time off he plays it with an average 76-77.

Peeewe's edge Manola 18-17

Gary Larsen's home run in the bottom of the ninth inning gave St. Albert Peeewe Baseball Club an 18-17 victory over Manola on Saturday afternoon.

Larsen's shot, aimed down the left field line that travelled all the way to the fence on the Mission Park Diamond, came with two out and the bases empty.

Matt Lister had pulled St. Albert into the earlier in the inning as he walked, then stole second, third and home.

After the first half of the first inning, St. Albert never trailed but they did see a 10-3 lead disappear as Manola scored in every inning but one. St. Albert led 10-3 after the second inning.

Simon LaFrance, Gary Dean, Dale Reinbolt and Gordie Grant shared pitching chores for St. Albert. Grant got the win as he was the pitcher of record when Larsen cracked his game-winning shot.

Leduc tourney

St. Albert Willowbrook Oilers will compete in a baseball tournament at Leduc this weekend.

Oilers, who won $100 for finishing second in their own tournament Aug. 3, will play their first game Saturday at 3 p.m. against Calmar Cubs.

AROUND TOWN

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Raymond of 30 St. Michael Street, St. Albert, will celebrate their 25th wedding anniversary Aug. 23 with an open house between 2 and 3 p.m.

Oilers triumph

Calmar Angels talked themselves right out of any chance they had of winning the opening game of the Oilfield Baseball League playoffs here last Wednesday night.

Trailing St. Albert Willowbrook Oilers 8-3 in the bottom of the fifth inning, they saw any chances they had of winning wiped out when playing-manager Dave Buchak got the thumb from umpire R. J. Dockstader.

With only nine players on hand, they couldn't carry on. Buchak got the thumb for disputing a ball called on Oilers' Hal Gerin. He claimed it should have been a strike. Dockstader, having issued a warning to Buchak in the second inning, closed up shop.

Actually, Oilers were flexing their muscles in this any way and it is doubtful

Angels would have been able to come back.

Oilers' field boss Bob Mulloy has instituted a fine system and it seems to be paying off. It costs 10 cents for an error, 10 cents for a strikeout and 25 cents for taking a called third strike. Nobody was looking at third strike against Angels.

Big blows in the game for Oilers came from Arnie Bailey, who cracked a three-run homer in the first inning, and Mike Mulloy, who doubled home two runs in the third.

Fred Resler, cruising along with little trouble, was credited with the victory.

Oilers travel to Calmar tonight for the second game of the round-robin playoff. They will play Winterburn, the other team involved, next Tuesday and Thursday.

Swim teaching easier with new visual method

Mr. Denny O'Donnell, to the right, gives instructions during a refresher clinic at St. Albert last Saturday, when he introduced instructors and examiners to a new method for examination standard settings.

A somewhat different method of teaching swimming with the aid of cartridge film projectors, was demonstrated at the Red Cross Examiner and Instructor refresher clinic at St. Albert pool Saturday.

Mr. Denny O'Donnell, field supervisor of Red Cross House North Western, introduced the participants to the new system, which uses Super 8 film projectors with endless cartridge loops. Mr. O'Donnell has previously tried this system on youngsters, but this is the first time it was used on a refresher clinic.

"Usually we teach swimming with help from somebody demonstrating in the water, and when we later want to correct something, we can only tell the pupil to do more like so and so," said Mr. O'Donnell.

"Two years ago we started to use this type of 'endless motion pictures' in swim education and it really worked out fine," said Mr.

O'Donnell. "We placed a cartridge film projector, combined with a TV type of screen at the pool, pushed in the loop showing the special thing we want to teach, and the kids could watch and train for hours."

"But that wouldn't be necessary, as it is much easier for everybody to learn this way. You simply watch the picture and try to do the same! So we know that it is great for teaching the kids. After today we feel that it is just as good for instructor courses, where we standardize examinations and things like that," said Mr. O'Donnell.

After those successful experiments, films are likely to become more common for swim education, refresher courses and examination standard settings within Red Cross in Alberta and maybe throughout the whole of Canada.

Participants in Saturday's examiner clinic were from St. Albert, Willy Ford, Jim Echoe, Ann Kehoe, Pat Byrne, Margaret Laird, Elaine Guts, Betty Ann Kennedy and Barbara Munro. From outside St. Albert came Lloyd Carr, Lancaster Park, and Ray Dally, Edmonton.

Rain drowns Oilers' win

Rain washed out what appeared to be a successful day for St. Albert Willowbrook Oilers on Sunday.

Oilers were leading Swan Hills 11-2 at Barhead when rain put a fast stop to the game in the fourth lining.

Oilers and Swan Hills were competing with a team from Barhead in a novelty exhibition tournament. Each team was to play the other once.

No money was at stake. Side-arming right-hander Hank Reinhold was on the mound for the Oilers. He suffered no lack of support at the plate as Oilers hit to all corners of the field.

Oompa,oompa in Lions Park

The Saskatoon Lions Band played Monday evening for about 300 good listeners in Lions Park. The 64 members are 14 to 20 years old and all high school students. The concert in St. Albert was their last in a 12-day tour. They played at the opening of the regatta in Kelowna, B.C., at the White Horse Show in Banff, in Jasper Park Lodge and a number of other places. The St. Albert concert was crowned by performances of the band's Majorettes, the finale of which featured twirling fire batons. The band was directed by Mikel Kalmakoff.

Letter to the Editor

Dear Sir:

An incident occurred on Grosvenor Blvd, outside our home last Friday which again points out the problem of the speed at which vehicles are being driven on the streets of St. Albert.

Our little dog managed to get out of the house when the door was opened for a visitor, ran across the road and was struck down by a car. He subsequently had to be destroyed after spending four days in a veterinary hospital. I realize that this is my problem, but I am convinced, as are several of my neighbours, that had the car been travelling at the legal rate of speed, the driver would have had no difficulty in avoiding the dog.

There were no cars parked on the street, the pavement was dry and visibility was excellent—it was broad daylight. However, this character was going at least 45 miles per hour according to the estimate of several witnesses.

However, this is not the purpose of my letter—I am writing to point out that this might well have been someone's youngster instead of a dog. We feel badly enough about the unnecessary loss of our pet but think what a terrible tragedy it would have been for some family if this had happened to one of their children! With so many tots going along Grosvenor on foot or on bicycles to and from the swimming pool, I am afraid that it is only a matter of time before we do have an accident, probably a fatal one, unless this speeding is curtailed. Some of the little ones can hardly manage their bicycles and do some heart-stopping weaving around on the road.

With the high taxes we are paying ($709. in my case) I feel that we have a right to expect more protection from these apparently irresponsible and heedless drivers. It seems that in about 8 out of 10 cases, all thoughts of care, courtesy and common sense are forgotten or ignored and I think it is high time that the guilty ones should be forced to obey the town by-laws—it is quite apparent that they do not intend to obey them voluntarily.

I also think it is high time that the drivers of motor scooters were made aware of the fact that the speed limits also apply to them. It is disgusting the way they snarl up and down the street at top speed, day and night, and they are just as capable of killing or maiming a person as is a car, the only difference being that they would probably incur some damage to themselves in the process.

I am sorry this is so long winded, but I feel very bitter about these people who gup and down your street as though they were still on the highway, completely ignoring the safety of your children—and some of the cars are loaded with young ones. And so I suggest that something be done about this problem now (and surely there is something that can be done) and that we do not wait until someone has been killed or crippled for life by someone else's carelessness.

G. A. Johnston.

Comment

Mayor Ray Gibbon, reading the above letter at council Monday night, said residents could assist RCMP in apprehending speeders by getting a description of vehicles and where possible the licence number. He said this was not enough to warrant a charge, but it would allow RCMP to issue a warning and alert them on who to watch for.

Ernest Onyskiw of St. Albert, who has worked for Texaco here for a year, has opened a car-truck wash and gas-up station on 125th Avenue and St. Albert Trail. The station has three washing bays, two under roof and a truck wash outside, all coin-operated. The gas-up service includes all services, except repairs. This week Mr. Onyskiw offers a free complimentary five-minute car wash to everybody who brings in the advertisement in this week's issue of The Gazette announcing the opening.

Gospel group to St. Albert

Sunday morning Aug. 17, the Gospel Crusaders will be at the St. Albert Lutheran Church for the 9 a.m. service.

Seven young people, sponsored by the Lutheran Evangelistic Movement who have been visiting various congregations and bible camps in Canada this summer, will make their appearance at St. Albert Lutheran.

As they say: "We are a bunch of goofy kids trying to use the few talents that God has given us to communicate through music, song, and personal witness, the Christian life in a simple and meaningful way, particularly to young people."

RECREATION Hi-Lites

Next weekend will see 17 swim teams in action at the University Pool where the St. Albert Swim Club will be hosting the Central Regional "B" Swim Meet. The heats will be run on Saturday, Aug. 16 from 8:30 a.m. - 1 p.m. and from 5 - 10 p.m. The finals will take place on Sunday, Aug. 17 from 8:30 a.m. - 1 p.m.

Since the Swim Club started last year, enthusiasm has been mounting steadily and the attendance at the training sessions has been high. The almost daily training has paid off and our young swimmers have been very successful at the meets they have attended over the summer. According to Bernie Lutmer, the coach of the club, he has many very promising young swimmers in the team and he expects them to qualify at the weekend for the Provincial "B" Finals which will be held Aug. 23 and 30.

This is the first meet sponsored by the local club and its a really big one. A great deal of very hard work has gone into its organization on the part of Bernie and the executive of the club. Entry forms had to be analyzed, heat sheets made up, accommodation arranged for the out-of-town teams, etc. Everything possible in being done to ensure that the event runs smoothly.

Anyone interested in swimming should make a point of going over to the pool at the university this weekend. A swim meet always generates terrific excitement which is infectious. And remember - its the St. Albert Swim Club which is running it so we should really all get there and give them our support.

POOL NEWS
Examinations following the current sessions of swimming lessons will be held on the morning of Saturday, Aug. 16. There will therefore be no public swimming on that day till 1 p.m.

On Aug. 20, adult swimming will be restricted to half-an-hour from 9:30 - 10 p.m.

At the Mile Swim held last Saturday, the following were successful in obtaining awards. Kathy Fowler and Richard Hartley deserve congratulations for obtaining Gold Awards, which means that they completed the mile within 25 and 30 minutes. Sandy Willis and Theresa Ball finished the distance within 30 and 35 minutes and gained Silver Awards.

A very successful officials clinic, sponsored by the swim club, was held on Sunday evening. This was conducted by Mr. Kennedy, an official of the Canadian Amateur Swim Association - and also father of Betty Anne, one of the most popular members of the pool staff. Participants in the clinic learned the finer points of timing at meets and the various aspects of record-keeping. This will all prove useful next weekend when St. Albert will be responsible for the regional meet at the university pool.

MEN'S SOCCER

Last week St. Albert Bruins won one last one. On Thursday they were beaten by the University of Alberta Golden Bears, 6-2 with John McDermott and Roger Marsh scoring for the local team. However, they came into their own on Friday when they won by a score of 6-1 in a game against the City Police. No less than four goals were scored by Fred Austin for the Bruins with Gordon Sammons and Gordon Beckwith scoring one each. The next games for the St. Albert team will be on Aug. 13 against the Sanders and on Aug. 14 against Ben Fica. Both games at the grounds at Paul Kane at 6:30 p.m. each evening.

Sanctum re-opened by mid-September

St. Albert's 600 teens can look forward to have the Sanctum teen club re-opened by mid-September, if a group of youngsters are successful in their efforts right now. But the Town's Council has made it very clear that this is the last chance; if the place is not run properly this time, it will be closed down for good.

Four students; Bill Robinson, Marlon Rindero, Ken Dolhagary and Doug Atchinson; are pushing the thing ahead, but they need support and above all responsible adults and youngsters to form the advising and management committees.

"From my point of view, there is really no rush to get the place opened again," says Mayor Ray Gibbon. "The council has agreed it could be re-opened, but providing that everything is organized properly. That means nothing is going to happen until there is excellent proof this time."

Sanctum opened in October last year, when the town had supplied the building, land and other things needed for a teen centre. It was run like a club with membership and a number of dances were organized until the end of January this year, when the place was closed.

"We all hope that it can be opened again, and this time with proper rules which everybody follows," says Mayor Gibbon. "That means that everything is settled - when the place is to be opened and closed, who is allowed to be there and who's not, prices and many other things - and all the regulations must be strictly maintained."

The four youngsters know it will take a strong organization, but with the help of everybody who is interested in having the place re-opened they are optimistic about the future of the Sanctum.

"We intend to run it like a business this time," says Bill Robinson. "There's not going to be any membership, everybody is welcome as long as he or she behaves. As a whole it is going to be a coffeehouse, where everybody can go and spend a couple of hours, listen to music, we hope to get a jukebox, and talk. Quietly."

"So right now, we hope to get in touch with a lot of people, who are interested in helping us along. They can call Doug Atchinson at 599-6114, or Mayor Gibbon at the Town Hall."

Boy scout exchange

IRWIN JEWELL

Irwin Jewell, 14, from York on Prince Edward Island, is visiting St. Albert in a boy scout travel exchange. He arrived Aug. 3, to stay with David Esson, 18 Spruce Cres., who had visited Irwin from July 17. This boy scout travel exchange is partly government sponsored. Both boys think it is a great idea to make it possible for people with the same interest to meet each other and learn how they live.

David, who has belonged to the third troop of United Church's boy scouts in St. Albert for four years, has not had enough time to sum up all his impressions from his time in York, but every much liked the sea and was struck by the color of the soil on the island; it was all red under the surface.

Irwin is not a complete stranger to Alberta; he was here on holidays last summer and he is looking forward to seeing the mountains again. A trip there will be made during his stay here. He will leave for home Aug. 17th.

Revolutions are not about trifles. — Aristotle.

The cannibal king arrived home for lunch the other day and asked his wife what she was having. She replied: "Two old maids." The king grunted, showed his displeasure and remarked, "Ugh! Left-overs again."

St. Albert girl drowns

Carolyn Anne Learning, 18, of 4 Gordon Cres., drowned Monday while on vacation with her family at Osoyoos, B.C.

Carolyn was walking across a narrow sandbar to an island with her sister, Mary, when both girls slipped and fell into deep water.

Mary was pulled to safety on a nearby boat and revived, but it was a few more seconds before Carolyn could be pulled from the water.

The Learnings and their nine children had arrived at the campsite, 42 miles south of Penticton and just north of the U.S. border, earlier in the day.

Prayers will be said at 8 p.m. Thursday, Aug. 14 at the Roman Catholic Church in St. Albert. Funeral services will be held Friday morning at 10 a.m.

Connelly-McKinley Ltd. of Edmonton is in charge of funeral arrangements.

Forest Lawn replot is under way again

Town council will probably replot for a replot of the strip of land running along Nanao Road called Forest Lawn.

Council Monday night adopted a committee of the whole recommendation that the present replot be discontinued to open the door for a new application.

It also adopted a resolution calling for a meeting between Town Solicitor A. M. Brownlee, Mayor Ray Gibson and Secretary-Treasurer D. B. O'Connell.

They will determine what portion of the work done so far can be salvaged and also ensure that the submission of a new replot will be conducted in accordance with the Planning Act.

Numerous town administrations have been working on the replot since the early 1960s and last year an application for the replot was actually submitted to the Public Utilities Board.

It ended there, however, as the board said there were too many discrepancies in the town's application for it to hear the case.

This time, however, Mayor Gibson and council intend to make certain there won't be any discrepancies when the town takes its case to the board.

"We hope to be able to apply by October," the mayor said Monday, "and we hope the board will expedite the hearing. If all goes well, we could have it cleared up by the end of the year."

There would be no necessity for a hearing if council could get consent for the replot from 90 per cent of the owners. The mayor, however, says there is no hope of this.

Mayor Gibson said council wanted to get the Forest Lawn question cleared up because it was holding up the proper progress of that area of the town.

The north end of the land contains the site on which a proposed arena would be built. No start on the arena can be made, however, until the replot is approved by the public utilities board.

Which means, according to the mayor, that a start could be made on the arena by year's end.

Council briefs

Council decided Monday night that it would not pursue the obtaining of the present rodeo grounds as a permanent site.

Finance Committee Chair man R. G. Wheatley, who had originally suggested the move, reported to council that it would involve too large a sum of money.

"We couldn't justify the expense," he said, "for something that would only require land for three days a year, when we haven't the money to get things like an arena."

If a permanent home is ever found for the rodeo, it will probably be in Forest Lawn where council is attempting to effect a replot.

Town Planner J. X. Woodroffe said the town would possibly realize 40 acres for a recreation area out of the area. He suggested the town, parks board and school boards get together now to start planning for this area.

Council got a bit of a start when Councillor Armand Donalds mentioned that under the terms of the 99-year lease the old curling club

Council gave third reading to a bylaw authorizing payment for the utility buildings (old army huts) the town purchased a long while back.

"We're finally getting around to paying for them," said Mayor Gibson, Councillor R. G. Wheatley had some comments concerning the delay.

"Every one who had served on council since these buildings were bought should have to cough up to pay for the extra three per cent interest," he said. "We're paying nine when we could have had them for six."
